SeaWorld Orlando

We frogs feel right at home in this lush, tropical paradise of a theme park that features animal attractions, exhibits, aquariums and shows. While there are some world-class rides at SeaWorld® Orlando, it is the animal shows that most people come to see. Show times are staggered throughout the day, typically starting in the late morning and ending in the late afternoon. During Summer Nights and Christmas Celebration, the park is open later and features additional shows and a fireworks finale. We recommend arriving at least 20 minutes prior to show time for the best seats.

The longest waits in the park can be found at Antarctica: Empire of the Penguin®. The park's newest attraction is mostly a tame family ride that ends inside in the spectacular 30-degree penguin habitat. (There is a separate entrance to the penguins if you'd rather skip the ride.) The viewing area allows guests to see the penguins up close in a natural habitat and watch them above ground or underwater!

Nearby Journey to Atlantis®, a combination dark and water ride, sees its wait times spike during the hottest months. Manta® and the brand-new Mako™ are not to miss if you are a coaster fan—they are some of the best in Florida! The fear factor keeps many away, but you'll still find the lowest waits within the first and last two hours of park operation.

We recommend arriving at least 20 minutes ahead of official park opening. Guests are typically allowed early entry but held in the main entrance area until official opening. Planning a day at SeaWorld® is largely dependent on the number of available shows and show times. For this reason, we've included the following list of park priorities.

SeaWorld® Orlando 1-Day Park Plan

We've created this one-day park plan for SeaWorld® Orlando so you can experience the most popular rides before the day's shows begin, and allow yourself time to experience the shows, aquariums and exhibits. This plan assumes you do not have Quick Queue Unlimited, and are starting at park opening and finishing in the evening. Because the number of SeaWorld® shows and show times vary depending on the season, it's possible you will need to adjust the touring plan to fit current show times. We recommend checking SeaWorld®'s website a few weeks before your visit to see the expected show schedule.
